Borges Grande Reserva Douro 2005 - 91 points

"While it is certainly rich, this wine is also finely balanced, elegant almost. The dusty tannins curl around the dark fruits, freshened by sweet acidity. It is powerful and concentrated, with some spice from new wood. An impressive wine, worth aging for two more years"

Borges Quinta da Soalheira 2007 - 87 points (Best Buy)

“A rich, juicy wine, bursting with black currant and red plum fruit flavors. The wine is sweet, soft, the tannins fitting into a profile of light wood, the whole finished with light acidity. Drink soon”

Borges Quinta de Simaens 2008 - 87 points (Best Buy)

“Floral, fresh aromas burst out of the glass in this green, crisp wine. There is a creamy element to it, probably from the Alvarinho in the blend, giving the wine some richness. But in the end, this is all about lightness, summer drinking with seafood”.

Gatão - 84 points (Best Buy)

This familiar brand of Vinho Verde has long been in a sweeter style. But this latest vintage seems to have brought out the fresh, crisp fruits, and pushed back the sweetness. The result is a delicious summer apéritif style that leaves a clean, light taste in the mouth.”

Meia Encosta white 2008 - 84 points (Best Buy)

“A soft wine, creamy and ripe. The flavors are open, with white fruits, green plums, a baked apple character. There is acidity, but with the gentle, ripe fruit, this blends in easily. For early drinking”
